

Fairstead Primary & Nursery School

Procedure for dealing with children not collected from school at the end of the school day or activity

Introduction:

Under Section 175 of the Education Act 2002, Local Authorities and Schools have a duty to safeguard and promote the welfare of children. This duty should include making arrangements for dealing with children not collected at the end of a school day, or at the end of a school activity which is authorised by the school.

Fairstead Primary & Nursery School recognises that it has a statutory duty to safeguard and promote the welfare of pupils, and that this duty extends to having arrangements in place for dealing with children who are not collected at the end of a school day, or at the end of an authorised activity.

This procedure will be shared with parents as part of the school pack, when their child starts our school or nursery.

On admission of their child to the school, parents should supply:

- names and full addresses of parents/carers (and confirmation of parental responsibility)
- home and work telephone numbers
- mobile phone numbers where appropriate
- a minimum of two, preferably three, emergency contact details of people who may be called in the event of the parents/carers being unobtainable or in the case of an emergency

This information should be updated annually or whenever circumstances change.

It is the parent/carer's responsibility to ensure that the pupil is collected by a responsible person. The school must be notified immediately it becomes apparent that the person collecting the child may be late.

Fairstead Primary School agrees to care for a pupil who has not been collected from school, until such a time as he/she has been collected by a parent/carer, or until appropriate, alternative care arrangements have been made with Social Care, and/or the Police, in order to maintain the child's safety.

If parents/carers have not collected their child/children fifteen minutes after the normal end of the school day or afterschool activity and have not rung school to advise of their lateness, the child will be looked after in the Nurture room.

The School's Designated Person for Child Protection/Safeguarding will keep a record of incidents where parents/carers do not collect a child from school or are late for no explained or good reason, or where there are repeated incidents. If any concerns about the child's safety and welfare result, these will be dealt with in accordance with the School's Child Protection/Safeguarding Policy and Procedures.

Our procedures:

- If a child is not collected by a parent/carer after the school day or approved activity, the Headteacher or Designated Person will be notified. Every effort will then be made to contact the parent/carer, or failing that, the emergency contact.
- In the case of a pupil not being collected and no contact being made by 3:30pm, the school will contact the Norfolk Childrens Advice and Duty Service (CADS) on 0344 800 8021 to raise concerns and ask advice. This will allow CADS to be aware of the possibility that they may need to make arrangements for the alternative care of the child. For information, which may need to be passed on, see Appendix A.
- CADS will give advice and make appropriate checks. However, school will continue to be responsible for trying to contact the parent/carer/emergency contact and to keep CADS updated about the situation.
- If there are any concerns about the welfare of the parent/carer, CADS may ask the local Police to visit the home address; please note that the Police cannot themselves provide a place of safety for a child(ren).
- If attempts to contact a parent/carer are still unsuccessful, school and CADS will jointly take responsibility for arranging for children to be transported to the Social Care Team (or other appropriate venue) who will arrange a place of safety. This is considered to be a last resort and parent/carers should do their best to ensure that this is not necessary. Social Care will notify the school of the child's placement and provide contact details as appropriate. It will be the intention to return the child to the parents/carers at the earliest opportunity.
